F G Em F F G Fj7/b5

RIFF

VERSE

Peace and love had its moments now, the rainbow's gone from the sky

I couldn't look when the roots came up, now the tree lies empty and dry

Born in an age of uncertainty, raised to learn every rule

I have my doubts what it's all about, need to drown my sorrows in you

CHORUS 2

Going to break the bottle open, and we'll have a party for two

Drink away the cold let love unfold, want to drown my sorrows in you

Some sweet intoxication, from a bottle labeled in blue

Want to stay until I've drunk my fill Want to drown my sorrows in you

MEAN STREETS

If everything's in its place, how you ever going to get lost?
 And if you never get lost, how you ever going to find your way?
 On these clean streets, on these mean, clean streets of this town.

If everything's in its place, it's all where it's supposed to be,
 How you going to find some space?, some place you really want to be.
 On these clean streets, on these mean, clean streets of this town.

INSTRUMENTAL ON VERSE

Now if nothing ever moves, how you going to see the world go by?
 If all there is are truths, how you going to tell which one's are lies?
 On these clean streets, on these mean, clean streets of this town.

MID 8

G Am

If nobody takes the chances, and wise men know it all

G F F C

If you got all the answers, you won't know, you won't know, who to call

If everything is planned, how you ever going to understand?
 If everything's within reach, You don't need to make your stand
 On these clean streets, on these mean, clean streets of this town.
 If there's peace within our time, how come all I hear is war?
 And if the dying can't be seen, how do you know what your living for?
 On these clean streets, on these mean, clean streets of this town.

INSTRUMENTAL (ad lib words in fade out)

(Extra Verse if needed)

If you keep the shutters closed, how you going to see the world outside?
 If the map shows every street, how you going to find a place to hide?
 On these clean streets, on these mean, clean streets of this town.

ADDITIONAL STUFF

Just one piece of paper, just one different face
 One train that comes in later, would brighten up the place
 Just one chance to see you, just some peace of mind
 Hold on to that feeling the love comes right behind

I'M A SON OF SUN

In the valley of the shadows
Where the sun don't shine
I was born one cold, dark morning
I was taught to walk the line

Each day I sold my labor
My strength, I gave it to the man
He didn't do me any favors
I was a number in his plan

CHORUS

But that's all over now
I sing a different song
I found the way to spend my days
I know where I went wrong
When you hear the music calling
You know what must be done
Spend my life in clover
'Cause I'm a son of sun -
Yes I'm a son of sun

Yes, they tried to break my spirit
Then they tried to put me down
They can take a man's muscle
Just till pay day comes around

Now if you like my story
Then you'll know just what to do
Sing along and stand beside me
'Cause you can be one too
(... 'son of a gun')

I'M A SON OF SUN EXTRAS*Alternative / extra verses*

My daddy said take care son
My mama she meant well
But they never saw me broken
They had no way to tell

They said that time will change me
I would learn to tow the line
But little do they know me
I ain't wastin' any time

I used to be a soldier
I used to be a slave
Every morning feeling older
I was living day to day

FUNKY GOOD REASON  E

You don't know that since you left town tried to start again but nobody's around overdosing coffee and feeling kinda rough Gonna take that last train, I think had enough

And that's a funky good reason yes that's a funky good reason
I've got a funky good reason
To get my mind off you

I'm over done and over the top
Walking round this town, I feel like I could drop
And when the sun shines, I ought to make hey
Every time I think about it - no damn way

CHORUSBRIDGE

how may times I got to tell you just give some space how many days can I hold out for get me out of this place

INSTRUMENTALCHORUS

My brother wants to help, my sister's on the phone
I can't decide if I want to be alone people hanging round trying to be good
All I know is something here is boiling up my blood

Breaking rules and breaking hearts - So the story goes Drifting 'cross the country - there in the shadows
 Somewhere in the sunset - Somewhere far from home
 Hear the song they sing to you - You'll never be alone

Repeat CHORUS 1

Somewhere a guitar's strumming - A voice sings harmony
 No matter what they're singing - the song's for you and me
 If you're feeling down and blue - or maybe chilled to the bone put a dime in the jukebox - you'll never be alone

Johnny and the king - Where did it all go wrong?
 Johnny and the king - It was just a so o ooo ong Sometimes they'll leave you crying - Some days it's joy they bring
