

RAINY DAY MAN

Intro

What good is your happy lie
All you wanted from the start was to cry girl

1

It looks like another fall
Your good friends they don't seem to help at all
When you're feeling kind of cold and small
Look up your rainy day man

2

It does you no good to pretend child
You made a hole too much too big to mend
And it looks like you lose again my friend
So look up your rainy day man

Bridge

Now rainy day man don't like sunshine
Don't chase no rainbows, he don't need no good times
Gray days rolling then you'll see him
I said empty feeling, now you need him

3

All those noble thoughts they don't belong
You can't hide the truth with a happy song
It since you knew where you stood all along
Just call on your rainy day man

Bridge

Now simple pleasures they all evade you
Store bought treasures none can save - no
Now look for signs to ease the pain
Ask again child and prey for rain and

4

It looks like another fall
Your good friends don't seem to help at all
Now when you are feeling kind of cold and small
Look up your rainy day man
Time to come on home and look up our rainy day man
