

THAT NIGHT IN GOA E

Intro gt only Em B7 Am B7

Mmmmh, mmmmh, mmmmh, mmmmh STOP

It was a moonlit night I was trying to go
 I tried to move my feet but they moved very slowly
 I was the victim of multitude of shades following me
 Tried to watch them from a distance but my eyes couldn't see.
 I'd stolen something precious but I took it in trance
 Seem to make it undelicious, now I've got an advance
 I took a certain treasure now my feet wouldn't do
 So I flow awa – a – a -ay
 I wished it was true uuuuh, uuuh, mmmmmh

4 Solo STOP

Here comes another dream
 it seems so strange to me
 Maybe something I'm not come and hear my tragedy
 I was standing at the front lawn with a girl-friend of mine
 We were talkn' about something, wasting our time
 Then a snake was creeping towards us, it was very fat and lean
 It was the fattest snake, that I've ever seen
 With a wallop I hit it on the head,
 It tripped a little bit
 And then it was dead, mmmmh, mmmmh, mmmmh

4 Solo STOP

gt voice > * Here is your third dream, I don't know what it means
 It was a strange scene that only appears in certain dreams
 I heard it sound from the distance I was driven to this voice
 My feet started to run I didn't have another choice * <

I heard a voice of a woman, one that cleared the same time
 She sang in some foreign language the words seemed to rhyme
 It was destroying everything, painted everything so blue
 It wasn't some that I could sing but I guess
 Every word was true, mmmh, mmmh, mmmh
